

Tax Discussion Group Canberra

22 February – 21 November 2024

In person & online

1.5 CPD hours per session

Connect, discuss, and collaborate with your tax discussion group!

The Tax Discussion Groups are tailor-made to equip you with the tax technical skills, industry contacts and professional understanding to lead your team and your own development with confidence.

Meetings are held the third Thursday of every month from February to November with a maximum of 30 attendees per session.

Each session includes a topical presentation and group tax discussion around problem in practice or current and recent tax cases delivered either in-person or online.

Who should attend?

This Tax Discussion Group is a series of monthly events covering matters tax professions encounter in their practice that merit exploration in a discussion group format.

All subscriptions are valid for 2024 only. Please see the registration page for registration options.
