Welcome

On behalf of the organising committee, I am thrilled to welcome you to the ninth Agribusiness Intensive, to be held on 1-2 May 2025 both in-person at voco Brisbane City Centre and online. This year promises to once again provide expert insights from industry leaders and networking opportunities for practitioners around Australia. Whether you are attending in-person or online, this event is one not to be missed.

We are pleased to present a line-up of technical and practical sessions that will address the latest crucial tax, legal and commercial issues primary production businesses, and their advisers, face today. This year's program has been expertly curated by the committee to explore themes including:

- Corporatising the family farm
- Exploring both the legal and tax implications of alternative land uses
- FIRB & State Taxes
- Succession planning; and
- Recent changes affecting foreign investment into Ag.

Going beyond theory, the Agribusiness Intensive promises to provide advisers with practical tips and real-world war stories from experts with intricate knowledge in legal, accounting and everything in between. With the flexible offering of both online and face-to-face attendance every aspect of this event has been created with agribusiness professionals in mind, whether you have been advising primary production clients for decades or days.

We look forward to welcoming you to this exceptional event either face to face or online!

Technical program

Day 1 Thursday, 1 May 2025

Time *AEST	Session
8:30 – 8:45am	Registration
8:45 – 9:00am	Welcome and opening address
9:00 – 10:00am	Session 1: Who owns Australia? Speaker: Jaclyn Hope, LAWD This session will uncover the shifting landscape of international investment in Australia—why overseas institutional investors are pulling back, while high-net-worth individuals and large-scale funds are stepping in. We'll dive into the true picture of foreign ownership in agriculture, the fate of farm acquisitions, and the growing focus on securing supply over direct investment. Plus, explore the booming interest in intensive horticulture and large-scale MIT-backed deals.
10:00 – 10:30am	Morning tea
10:30 – 11:30am	Session 2: Dealings with Australian agricultural land – State tax issues and FIRB Speaker: Catherine Nufer-Bar, CTA, Hamilton Locke Despite efforts in harmonisation among legislation and compliance approaches, nuances remain. This session will consider the application of the relevant provisions and concessions that apply to primary producers, particularly in respect of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inbound FIRB thresholds • Land tax – who's exempt and who's not • Duty – critical thresholds, exemptions and differences among States • Practical guidance; and • Recent case law.

12:00 – 1:00pm	Session 9: Managing family dynamics – Current state of play Speaker: Tony Eyres, Rounding Up This session will delve into the role of family charters, shareholder agreements, and governance frameworks in managing family dynamics within agribusiness. Experts will discuss best practices for structuring ownership, decision-making processes, and conflict resolution mechanisms to ensure long-term stability. Attendees will gain insights into establishing advisory boards, succession structures, and tax-efficient business models to support both family and commercial interests. With a focus on practical strategies, this session will provide the tools needed to maintain harmony while driving agribusiness growth.
1:00 – 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00 – 3:00pm	Session 10: Repairs and Maintenance in a natural disaster context Speakers: Adria Askin, CTA, McCullough Robertson, Melinda Peters, CTA, McCullough Robertson Recent fires, floods, earthquakes, cyclones and third party mandates have compelled significant outlays on building refurbishment. The task of characterising the refurbishment outlays is complex and brings into focus many facets of tax law including balancing adjustments, CGT events and rollovers. This session explores the repair/improvement dichotomy raised by outlays incurred to refurbish buildings incorporating practical case studies around: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refurbishing buildings damaged by fires, floods, vehicle impacts and even earthquakes • Raising or jacking up buildings in flood areas • Mandated improvements for tenant; and • Problematic foundations and collapsing balconies in high rise buildings.
