Welcome

Happy 25th Birthday to the GST! On behalf of the Organising Committee, we would like to extend a warm welcome to The Tax Institute's National GST Conference for 2025 – Australia's pre-eminent event for GST practitioners and advisory specialists. This year the conference will be held at the Hilton Hotel Sydney from 16–17 October 2025. We're excited about our program for the year, featuring a mix of technical and case law updates, practical panel sessions and deep dives into technical issues. This year, we are honoured to welcome Lachlan Wolfers, CTA, KPMG International as our keynote speaker to reflect on 25 years of GST in Australia, and what the future might hold. There will also be a particular focus on hot button issues – the first reports from taxpayers and advisors on how Supplementary Annual GST Returns are working in practice, and the impact of Division 93 of the GST Act on refund claims. The economic update will also touch on the upheaval to global trade arising from renewed global tariffs. The networking function at the Hilton Hotel offers attendees the opportunity to connect with our speakers, as well as other practitioners in the industry. We look forward to welcoming you in person in Sydney in October.

Technical program

Day 1 Thursday, 16 October 2025

Time	Session
8:00 – 8:25am	Registration
8:25 – 8:30am	Welcome and opening address
8:30 – 9:30am	Session 1: Keynote address – 25 years of GST – reflections on the past; looking ahead to the future Speaker: Lachlan Wolfers, CTA, KPMG International The introduction of GST on 1 July 2000 marked a period of tremendous reform, backed by strong political will and a desire to position Australia’s tax system for the future. In this session we look back at pivotal moments in the development of Australia’s GST, evaluate what has gone well, and areas of untapped potential. The speaker will then apply his global experiences with indirect tax systems to chart a course for Australia’s future of GST to 2030.
9:30 – 10:30am	Session 2: Division 93, Division 142 and GST refunds: Like climbing Mount Everest with a blindfold Speaker: Jonathan Ackerman, ATI, Ackerman Consulting Division 93 and Division 142 can impose significant hurdles for taxpayers seeking to recover GST refunds from the ATO. This is made even more difficult due to the ATO’s interpretation of these provisions, including Miscellaneous Tax Ruling MT 2024/1, Miscellaneous tax: time limits for claiming an input tax or fuel tax credit. This session explores the issues around claiming GST refunds from the ATO (including refunds of input tax credits), the ATO’s views in this area, why planning is critical and why claiming GST refunds sometimes seems like climbing Mount Everest with a blindfold.
10:30 – 11:00am	Morning tea
11:00 – 12:00pm	Session 3: Unpacking a new filing obligation – the Supplementary Annual GST Return Panel: Virginia Gogan, Australian Taxation Office, Jonathan Paul, Woolworths, Chris Plakias, Westpac, Michelle Sams, Australian Taxation Office Facilitator: Sasha Smith, FTI, Deloitte The ATO has introduced a new return for public and multi-national businesses that have received a GST assurance rating. This return is a mechanism to assist the ATO to better tailor their Justified Trust engagement on GST with Top 100 and Top 1000 taxpayers alike. Our panellists will share their perspectives and insights on the content of the return, its purpose and the practicalities for its completion.

Day 1 Thursday, 16 October 2025 continued

Time	Session
12:00 – 1:00pm	Session 4: When GST and State taxes overlaps Speaker: Matthew Cridland, CTA, K&L Gates Understanding how GST interacts with state-based taxes is essential for effective property transaction structuring. This session examines key areas where federal and state tax regimes intersect, focusing on complex compliance and planning issues, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The ATO’s GST ruling on development leases and its implications for duty and land tax• Structuring sales as going concerns to reduce transfer duty and address ATO scrutiny of GST risks• The benefits and GST limitations of duty partition concessions, particularly for residential property• GST and duty implications of joint developments structured as partnerships; and• The impact of GST withholding on development agreements, especially in Victoria, and its effect on payment flows in residential projects.
1:00 – 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00 – 3:00pm	Session 5: Deep dive into GST technical issues Speaker: John Ryan, BHP Deep Dive into GST Technical Issues will be an interactive session exploring several complex and high-impact GST topics currently affecting practitioners. The discussion will cover key areas such as change in use adjustments, the application of reverse charge provisions, and GST recovery on complex transactions. With input from both legal and practical perspectives, the session aims to unpack the technical reasoning behind these provisions, highlight emerging ATO positions, and foster open dialogue around real-world challenges, interpretation issues, and recent developments. Attendees are encouraged to share experiences and engage in discussion throughout.
3:00 – 3:30pm	Afternoon tea
3:30 – 4:30pm	Session 6: Beyond Canberra – Unpacking the GST lessons from development leases in the ACT Speakers: Julia Brosnan, MinterEllison, Chris Tang, MinterEllison This session will explore GST issues and challenges arising under development lease arrangements in the Australian Capital Territory and beyond. Development arrangements between developers and government agencies are notoriously complicated and require parties to turn their minds to issues of attribution, characterisation and valuation of non-monetary consideration and the application of the margin scheme. The discussion will: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Revisit existing ATO guidance, including Goods and Services Tax Ruling GSTR 2015/2 Goods and services tax• Development lease arrangements with government agencies and Goods and Services Tax Determination GSTD 2021/1 Goods and services tax• Development works in the Australian Capital Territory; and• Consider the recent case law, including the decision of the ‘new’ Administrative Review Tribunal SFQV and Commissioner of Taxation (Taxation) [2024] ARTA 9.

Technical program

Time	Session
4:30 – 5:30	Session 7: Case update – Rulings & Hot topics Speaker: Steve Visser, CTA, KPMG Steve will cover the latest GST developments. He will discuss recent GST cases and newly published ATO public GST rulings/guidance on a variety of topical issues, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Proposed draft amendments to GSTR 2009/4: ‘new residential premises and adjustments for changes in extent of creditable purpose’ and GSTR 2003: ‘when is a sale of real property a sale of new residential premises?’ resulting from the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) decision in Domestic Property Developments Pty Ltd as trustee for the Dals Property Trust and Commissioner of Taxation [2022] AATA 4436 along with the withdrawal and replacement of GSTR 2005/6 and GSTR 2007/2 from 1 July 2025 with two new rulings, being GSTR 2025/1: ‘supplies of things (other than goods or real property) made to non-residents but provided to another entity in Australia’ and GSTR 2025/2: ‘supplies of things (other than goods or real property) where effective use or enjoyment of the supply takes place outside Australia’;• The newly established Administrative Review Tribunal decisions along with those handed down by the Federal Court of Australia and above since our last conference in Melbourne last November 2024; and• A ‘wish list’ of amendments and new rulings that would be welcomed based on the last twelve months in practice.

Technical program

Day 2 Friday, 17 October 2025

Time	Session
8:30 – 9:30am	Session 8: Commercial and residential GST issues in Specialist Disability Accommodation Speaker: Jessica Pengelly, CTA, Pengelly & Co Legal Pty Ltd With significant appreciation in the property market over the last few years, and growth of the NDIS sector, Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) is emerging as an area for continued private sector and not-for-profit investment. However, the convergence of the two areas can give rise to complex GST issues in the relation to the development, sale and provision of SDA. Failure to consider those issues can result in unexpected GST outcomes, including denial of input tax credits, increasing adjustments and GST liabilities. This session explores those critical issues that need to be considered in order to structure SDA investments effectively, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Requirements to qualify for GST-free treatment under section 38-38• Characterisation as residential vs commercial residential premises and why it matters• Issues arising on the sale of a going concern of SDA; and• Use of agency arrangements in provision of SDA and GST implications recovery of input tax credits.
9:30 – 10:30am	Session 9: General anti-avoidance provisions in GST administration Speaker: Andrew Sommer, CTA, ITX Legal General anti-avoidance provisions perform a critical role in the administration of the Australian taxation system. The design of the current provisions and the jurisprudence is very much linked to income tax. There are critical differences in the way in which general anti-avoidance provisions operate in the context of indirect taxation. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What are the challenges of general anti-avoidance provision in the context of indirect tax?• How has Division 165 been deployed?• How does Division 165 interact with the key choices and elections under the GST Act?• What has happened with the “gold” cases?• What other mechanisms are available to counter tax avoidance in GST; and• Is it time to reform our approach to anti-avoidance in GST?
10:30 – 11:00am	Morning tea

Technical program

Day 2 Friday, 17 October 2025 continued

Time	Session
11:00–12:00pm	Session 10: GST issues in the power industry (incl renewables) Speaker: Bastian Gasser, ATI, MinterEllison There are a growing number of GST technical issues arising in the power industry – for generators, distributors and retailers, but also for Government and private investors in the renewables energy industry. Some of these issues are being raised on a case-by-case basis by the ATO in Justified Trust reviews, and aren't the subject to public guidance or debate. Some of the themes discussed will also be relevant for other taxpayers. This session will explore: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The GST implications of Power Purchase Agreements (PPAs)• Agency (and subdivision 153-B) arrangements arising in relation to connection fees• Gifted assets; and• The coming end of the LGC regime, and the GST treatment of what might replace it.
12:00–1:00pm	Session 11: Economic update on Supply chains, Tariffs, Customs and Global Trade Speaker: Cherelle Murphy, EY The Economic Update will delve into the current state and future outlook of our national economy. Cherelle will provide valuable insights into the impact of tariffs on Australian industries and consumers, examine various economic factors influencing productivity, and unpack the implications of Labor's Economic Reform Roundtable.

Time	Session
2:00 – 3:00pm	Session 12: GST Technical issues arising from justified trust reviews Speaker: Shagun Thakur, PwC This session will explore key GST technical issues arising in justified trust reviews, which have become central to the ATO’s approach for large and complex taxpayers. The discussion will cover common review findings, emerging risk areas, and practical strategies to support compliance and governance. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Overview of Justified Trust Reviews: Explanation of the justified trust framework, its objectives, and its increasing significance in the ATO’s compliance approach for large and complex taxpayers.• Common GST Technical Issues: Discussion of the most frequently encountered GST technical issues during reviews• ATO Focus Areas and Emerging Risks: Insights into the ATO’s current areas of focus, recent guidance, and emerging risk areas identified through justified trust reviews; and• Best Practice Strategies: Recommendations for preparing for justified trust reviews, managing technical GST risks, and maintaining robust documentation and governance frameworks.
3:00 – 3:30pm	Afternoon tea
3:30 – 4:30pm	Session 13: International GST Speaker: Brian Lu, Australian Taxation Office Australia introduced GST to the cross-border supplies of digital product and services in 2017 and low value goods in 2018, leveraging principles recommended in the OECD International VAT/GST Guidelines. This GST reform has generated strong revenue outcomes supported by high voluntary compliance from non-resident businesses and an effective ATO international GST compliance program. This session will provide an overview of what has happened ‘behind the scene’, our observations of the non-resident business population, and notable international trends, as we approach a decade since the policy inception.
