Inspiring women in business networking breakfast

Kickstart your day with a morning of connection, empowerment, and inspiration at our first Inspiring Women in Business breakfast for 2025. This special event is open to all champions of diversity and inclusion, regardless of gender, who believe in the power of uplifting women in the workplace.

Over a light breakfast, immerse yourself in meaningful conversations and forge valuable connections with like-minded professionals who share a commitment to fostering growth, leadership, and success.

Hear from two extraordinary women as they share their personal journeys—how they carved their paths to success, overcame obstacles, and turned challenges into opportunities. Gain valuable insights into leadership, adaptability, and confidence, and walk away with fresh perspectives and practical takeaways to fuel your own career aspirations. Don't miss this chance to be inspired, connect with purpose-driven individuals, and celebrate the power of women in business.

Speakers:

Angela Driver, Chief Executive Officer, Tasmanian Leaders

Christine Arnot LLB. GAICD, Chairperson, St Giles Society Board

Speaker

Angela Driver, Chief Executive Officer, Tasmanian Leaders

Angela has been employed with Tasmanian Leaders since 2011, becoming the CEO in 2021. During this tenure she completed the Art and Practice of Adaptive Leadership at the Harvard Kennedy School of Executive Education in Boston and successfully completed a Brain Based Coaching certificate with the Neuro Leadership Institute. Prior to that she enjoyed a successful career in arts; establishing the Junction Arts Festival after completing a Churchill Fellowship into performance events for social change. She remains invested in the arts through her role as a Board director with Ten Days on the Island.

Christine Arnot LLB. GAICD, Chairperson, St Giles Society Board

Christine Arnot LLB, GAICD, is the Chairperson of the St Giles Society Board in Launceston, Tasmania, having served on the Board since 2017 and as Chair since 2021. With extensive governance experience, she has held leadership roles across various boards, including the Launceston Golf Club, Health Service Establishments Advisory Committee, and Chair of the Board at Scotch Oakburn College. A former family lawyer and senior manager at the Legal Aid Commission of Tasmania, Christine worked as a mediator until 2024 before retiring. Passionate about community service, she now enjoys gardening, golf, bridge, and spending time with her children and grandchildren.

“Women in Tax is a relaxed, inclusive event that brings together an amazing group of people who share their experiences and support. Life is a challenge, this event allows a supportive group of people to network, support and encourage each other.”
