Insights into ART— Strategies for success

Join Clare Thompson, Deputy President of the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART), as she shares valuable insights into the ART process. Clare will guide delegates on how to avoid common pitfalls and provide key lessons for building a strong case.

Clare will also explore why so many ART members are women and reflect on how she successfully balanced a rewarding career with a healthy work-life balance.

Clare will also look at the impact of evolving corporate policies and how an empowered approach has shaped her path to success.

Speaker: Clare Thompson SC, ATI, Deputy President, Administrative Review Tribunal

This unique event provides an opportunity for tax professionals at all stages of their career to network and hear inspiring stories shared by speaker Clare Thompson.

The event will feature an interactive session, followed by ample time to network over a delicious two-course lunch.

Speaker

Clare Thompson SC, ATI, Deputy President, Administrative Review Tribunal

Clare Thompson SC, ATI, was a barrister practicing at Francis Burt Chambers for 20 years from 2004. Prior to that she spent 10 years with major firm Freehills. She practiced in commercial litigation with a focus on taxation, banking, property and equity. In 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 she was named in Doyle's Guide's list of leading tax barristers in Western Australia. She holds a first-class Honours degree in Laws from the University of Tasmania, a Masters of Laws from Melbourne University, a Bachelor of Business from the University of South Australia, and a Grad Dip in Management from Curtin University. She was appointed Senior Counsel in 2021. On 19 July 2024, Clare was appointed Deputy President of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal and on 14 October 2024, she commenced as Deputy President of the Administrative Review Tribunal, which replaced the AAT. Clare hears a range of matters in the ART, focusing on taxation and business regulation.

“Women in Tax is a very open and inclusive community where professional contacts are built and friendships are made. Over the years I have found the Women in Tax network to offer a very welcoming and encouraging environment where we can all learn and share our experiences together. I highly recommend this group to anyone looking for a supportive community that fosters connection, growth and inspiration.”
